

You're invited!

roadtrip nation

is coming to

Irvine Valley College

Friday,
March 9, 2012

Time: 8:45 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Location: Business, Sciences, and Technology Innovation Building, Rm. 101
Continental Breakfast and Lunch will be served.

Students often struggle to answer one question: "So, what should I do with my life?"

To help students explore professional association opportunities and career pathways for their futures, the Career Development Advisory Committee is partnering with Roadtrip Nation to conduct regional workshops for faculty, counselors, and career professionals.

Don't miss out on this event to help students define their own Roads in life!

Please RSVP to Don Mineo and Janine Cirrito by submitting Region 8 RSVP by Feb 22, 2012.

About Roadtrip Nation

Roadtrip Nation is a public television series, an education organization, and a Movement of people who are defining their own Roads in life by resisting The Noise of conformity and doing what inspires them. roadtripnation.com