

Start a Conversation

Directions: Initiate three short, friendly conversations with three students in the class who you do not know or do not know well. Listen and ask questions to find something you have in common.

Conversation #1

Who:

What did you have in common?

To Make Conversation Connections:

- Listen!
- Ask questions about the other person
- Find something you have in common

Conversation #2

Who:

What did you have in common?

Conversation #3

Who:

What did you have in common?

Good questions are the key to good conversation. Write down 2–3 questions you asked or answered that helped you make a connection with another student.
